AFFLUENT TARGET AUDIENCE

Parents, alumni and friends attending private school athletic activities are affluent. FBA tuition ranges from about $9,000 - $14,000 per year. Other private schools' tuition falls into this range or higher. Your brand will have an impression on a clientele with significant discretionary income to spend.

OVER 300,000 IMPRESSIONS

Individuals from across the Dallas/Fort Worth area and the state will make their way to the many events held at the campus throughout the year. FBA student-athletes compete in 18 varsity sports as members of the Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS), winning a number of district and state championships. In addition to First Baptist Academy events, the athletic facilities are used by other area athletic organizations and schools, bringing thousands of other individuals from various surrounding communities. It is also used year-round for athletic training by some of the most well-known skills coaches in the state, training athletes from youth, high school, college and the professional ranks.
